

Coding, Billing and Reimbursement Support

TomoTherapy Incorporated is committed to helping our customers maintain their patient focus. That's why we've partnered with Revenue Cycle Inc.

Revenue Cycle Inc. (RCI) is a full-service consulting, billing and development company that specializes in oncology. Their services cover both hospital-based and free-standing facilities, and are available to you upon the purchase of your TomoTherapy® Hi-Art System®.

With easy access by e-mail or phone to RCI's expertise on TomoTherapy reimbursement, coding and appropriate documentation needs, you can attend to the care of your patients—with confidence that the business side of your practice is being run efficiently and profitably.

We are proud to connect our treatment center partners to a resource like RCI. For more information on this service, please contact
